

NEW SOUTH WALES

Reading the signs

Draw a line to connect each of the signs to their meaning.
Tip: Two different signs can mean the similar things.

Sharp coral can cause injury.
Watch where you step.

Beware of bluebottles
(stinging jellyfish)

Danger! Strong currents in this area.

No swimming. Dangerous conditions. Beach is closed.

Warning! High surf and big waves.

Warning! Dangerous shore break. Waves breaking in shallow water.

Warning! Shark sighted in area.

Signs at your school. There are signs everywhere to let us know about something important and warn us about things that might be dangerous. How many signs can you find at your school? Go for a walk and see how many you can count. Record your number in the box.