

Bilingual Water Safety Volunteers

Do you want to become a bilingual water safety volunteer?

- ✓ Learn how to stay safe in and around water
- ✓ Share water safety messages at the beach
- ✓ Improve your communication, confidence, and leadership skills
- ✓ Explore potential training and employment opportunities

CLICK HERE TO BECOME A VOLUNTEER

To become a volunteer, you need to have bilingual skills and will have to participate in an information session and a training workshop.

NOTE: No prior water safety knowledge or swimming skills required.

Led by Surf Lifesaving NSW in collaboration with the South East Sydney Multicultural Water Safety Committee

Contact:

Isam Al-Handola 0429 614 873

ial-handola@surflifesaving.com.au

Jenny Grey 0481 552 155 | jgrey@gcais.org.au

NEW SOUTH WALES